— Jund 20 June.

Request for Requirements, ORR 10328, CIA Item Nos. 4370-4381

This Office requests the following exploitation of these electronic components, preferably by a US manufacturer:

1. A brief summary of physical characteristics, structure, and all markings.

2. A brief summary of the most important electrical characteristics, if this is feasible, with only one sample of each type of component.

3. A brief evaluation of materials and manufacturing methods used as compared with US practice.

4. An analysis of probable reliability, if this can be done by observation of the components.

5. A comparison of costs with similar US components.
